

BY

Lupin

H.S.R. NO.

43

R E S O L U T I O N

WHEREAS, It is a pleasure always welcomed by Members of the Texas House of Representatives to assist a colleague in the celebration of his birthday during a legislative session, and on this Monday, February 19, 1973, Representative Charles Evans of ~~Arlington~~ ^{HURST} has given us this welcome opportunity; and

WHEREAS, A freshman Member of the Texas House, Charlie has, nevertheless, made the most of his two months in Austin by — displaying the likable personality which won his election, and he has become a great favorite with his ready smile and frequent witticisms; and

— WHEREAS, One of his foremost claims to fame, in his own words, is the fact that he was "born in Florida," but saw the error of his ways around the age of ^{two} and moved to Texas; he has also attained some renown as a "hot pilot," so hot, in fact, that he is frequently called the "Red Baron"; and

— WHEREAS, During a very active life, evidenced to some degree by the tattoo hidden on his left shoulder, he entered the streets of commerce at a tender age, engaging in many lucrative enterprises among which was employment as a rat exterminator in the stockyards of Fort Worth; some say he was sent to Austin by his constituents on the basis of his success in this endeavor with the idea that he might use the same techniques in cleaning the "rats" out of the Capitol in keeping with the tone of the new "reform" legislature; and

WHEREAS, Charlie and two of his buddies painted their hair red, white, and blue while in Junior High School, thus proving Charlie is an All-American Boy and one this Legislature can look upon with pride; and

WHEREAS, Charlie is an outstanding sportsman, once winning a yo-yo championship; and

WHEREAS, Members of the House of Representatives would like to take this opportunity to extend Birthday greetings to their good friend and colleague, the Honorable Charles Evans; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED, That the House of Representatives of the 63rd Legislature of the State of Texas hereby wish Charlie Evans a Happy Birthday with the further wish that he and his beautiful wife celebrate many more of the same; and, be it further

RESOLVED, That an official copy of this Resolution be prepared for Representative Charles Evans as a memento of this special occasion from his colleagues and the employees and officers of the Texas House of Representatives.